“I aspire to be a giver, a giver of love, a giver of good vibes and a giver of strength”

My biggest dream is to become a leader, a motivator, a listener and a good human being. In a world where finding a job is as difficult as rocket science, you can either be just a job holder or a person who can give jobs to many and hence I choose to provide jobs, I choose to become a business woman. This is that field where I can become the reason for actualizing someone else’s dreams. In the next 10 years I see myself leading a team full of individuals who has dreams to change the world with their competence and artistry. I believe that the exemplary experiences and knowledge I have gathered from Indian Central School will help me clinch my dreams.

“I aspire to be someone who can help achieve someone else’s aspirations”
